

Facet Professor Manages to Hold His Place.

TOLEDO, O., April 11.—Trustees in Toledo University in special meeting, which lasted until nearly midnight last night, refused to accept the resignation of Prof. Scott Nearing, Dean of Arts and Sciences, formerly of the University of Pennsylvania. Prof. Nearing, who is a pacifist, tendered his resignation several weeks ago when criticized for his attitude against the country entering the war with Germany. The communication was ordered filed.

Stomach Troubles Are Due to Acidity

Tells Safe, Certain, Speedy Relief For Acid Indigestion.

So-called stomach troubles, such as indigestion, gas, sourness, stomach-ache and inability to retain food, are in probability nine cases out of ten simply evidence that excessive secretion of acid is taking place in the stomach, causing the formation of acid.

One distaste the stomach and causes that full oppressive burning feeling sometimes known as heartburn, while the acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach. The trouble lies entirely in the excessive development or secretion of acid.

To stop or prevent this souring of the food contents of the stomach and to neutralize the acid, and make it bland and harmless, a teaspoonful of bluestone, a good and effective corrector of acid stomach, should be taken in a quarter of a glass of hot or cold water after eating, or whenever gas, sourness or acidity is felt. This sweetens the stomach and neutralizes the acidity in a few moments and is a perfectly harmless and inexpensive remedy to use.

An antacid, such as bluestone, which can be obtained from any druggist in either powder or tablet form, enables the stomach to do its work properly without the aid of acid. Bluestone, which comes in several forms, so be certain to ask for and take only bluestone. Bluestone, which is especially prepared for the above purpose.—A.E.T.

ST. LOUIS GUNNERS HELP BILLY SUNDAY ROUSE PATRIOTISM

Appear With Evangelist, Who Urges Preparedness and Raps Laggard Preachers.

Billy Sunday, having learned the value of the patriotic appeal to his audiences, and remembering two sessions of his campaign when there were empty benches in his tabernacle, turned to Americanism again to-day as a means of drawing and holding his hearers. When he opened his afternoon service he had on the platform beside him eighteen members of the gun crew of the St. Louis, the first liner to make a round trip through the German war zone.

Billy's son George, who is also his business manager, is another member of the family who realizes the value of patriotism. He has a new type Curtiss scout biplane which is on its way from San Diego, Cal., and to-day he went to a recruiting station and announced he was ready to sign his name at once for service in the United States aviation corps and enlist as soon as his affairs could be arranged.

When the St. Louis gunners, in dress uniform, came on the platform this afternoon, led by Gunner's Mate Walter E. Meyers, they took the first row of chairs just back of Billy's pianos. All wore the cap ribbon of the U. S. S. Arizona.

The crowd applauded when Homer Rodheaver, Sunday's choirmaster, got the gunners to stand up so they could be seen. Then he led the singing of "Bring on the Corner Where You Are."

The assemblage numbered about 8,000, just what Billy preached to yesterday afternoon. It was the same kind of audience, too, with women in the majority.

While the collection was being taken up, Rodheaver played "The Palm" on his silver trombone. The panning of the collectors did not appear to be very filled. The total offering at yesterday's two sessions was only $592.88.

Before beginning his sermon, Billy, with a wave of the hand toward the line of bluejackets back of him, said: "I've been asked why it is the Government asks young men between the ages of eighteen and twenty-three to enlist. It's because at that time they are at the very maximum of physical strength, grit and endurance and the minimum of need in business."

The evangelist made his sermon a preparedness appeal urging his hearers to be ready. His subject was the Pentecost revival.

"My country makes me tired," he said, "It's known for two years that this conflict was coming and yet we are the worst prepared nation in the world. We put fire escapes on a building to save people from death fire; we don't break a leg before we learn how to set it."

Billy inveighed against the preachers who held meetings lasting such and such a time. "Why," he said, "I've preached in churches where there was a clock screwed in the wall—I think the devil used the screwdriver. I don't want anyone pulling a watch on me—pull a gun if you want to, but not a watch."

While Billy was in the midst of his sermon, people continued to enter the auditorium. Billy shouted to the ushers to stop at the back of the tabernacle.

"Don't let them come down to the front, no matter if it is the Governor or the Mayor. I have a right to expect your co-operation as much as the President and Congress expect your co-operation at a time like this. The Government has the power to conscript you and should do it if you don't co-operate with it."

What the church needs to-day, he said, resuming his sermon, more than steeples and pipe organs, is a baptism of the Holy Ghost. The church also needs a baptism of horse sense, he said.

In the course of his sermon "Billy" said in part:

"You'll have better prayer meetings if you go expecting something. We are disciples to-day just as certainly as those men back in Judea, when it comes to the work of carrying on the Gospel. One reason for the Church's failure to-day is that it does not realize that it has the same God-given mission."

"God's purpose is to give him the right of way. Your way is to let house cleaning, theatre going, feasts, lodge meetings, card parties, week-end blowouts and everything else come in first before God."

"Judging from the church attendance to-day, Heaven won't be packed with men. No doubt the disciples had just as pressing business as the men of New York to-day. And those were warm meetings. Everybody was enthusiastic. There was no danger of catching pneumonia by sitting down on a seat that had just been vacated by some church official or deacon. There was no ice water to those prayer meetings."

"If New York had had to wait for certain members of the churches, the old town would have been in hell long ago. 'Some people think they can't run a church without oyster soup. The more soup there is the faster the church is going to the devil. I believe in oyster soup, but I do not believe in cooking quarters out of those pockets to pay the back salary of the preacher.'"

"Some of you women will sweat your hands out straight in the social room with a smile on your face, but put you in the prayer meeting and you're still as you can get. You're killing religion and assassinating the church by your stiff, staid conventionalities."

"We need one accord in the churches more than we need high-priced opera singers up in the choir loft to sing chromatic scales like a squirrel climbs a tree."

"There is too much playing hide-and-seek and tag with the devil in the churches. If the church of Jesus Christ withdrew its patronage from the theatres of the country they'd go out of business."

"Lots of you women have not religion enough to go home and burn that pack of cards, take that beer out of your cellar and dump it in the sewer or take that dish you won at the card party—you black-legged gambler—and burst it."

"You must give up everything God forbids. If this right eye offends, pluck it out. Give up things as valuable as an eye. It is better to go to heaven with one eye than to hell with both eyes."

U. S. FLAG AND UNIFORM

FOR AVIATORS IN FRANCE

Americans in Lafayette Squadron to Take Own Colors into Air at Front.

PARIS, April 11.—The American uniform and the Stars and Stripes will soon be seen in action on the French front.

The War Office to-day decided that the Lafayette Air Squadron, composed almost exclusively of American aviators, in the future will be permitted to wear the American army uniform. On their aeroplanes will be painted the American flag.

When the American aviators appear in the uniform of the United States Army this country will have its first representation of the war as a belligerent. Heretofore the American unit has constituted an integral part of the French army, and at the request of the American Government the French War Department some time ago discontinued use of the name American Flying Corps, to avoid embarrassment to Washington. After the adoption by Congress of the war resolution the Americans hoisted the Stars and Stripes over their headquarters, but their official status was not changed.

FIRE ROUTS 26 FAMILIES.

Body in Undertaking Establishment Is Badly Burned.

Twenty-six families occupying the six story building at No. 339 East Twelfth Street rushed to the street in panic last night when fire started in the basement where undertakers were preparing the body of Mrs. Filippo Giordana for burial. Several of those in the Giordana apartment were slightly burned trying to extinguish the fire.

The draft from an open window blew the flame from a candle against a drape. Firemen confined the blaze to the basement. The body was badly burned.

Enemy Aliens Seek Home Permits. The office of United States Marshal Power in Brooklyn to-day was crowded with enemy aliens seeking information regarding permits for residence and working places within the restricted areas near harbor fortifications. They were told to apply to the Department of Justice in Washington, according to certificates of good character from several citizens.
